at the

Brighton Memorial Library

Learning Center

2300 Elmwood Avenue

Brighton, New York

FREE and open to the public

From May 8-16 New York Citizens marched across the state to bring support to our Active Duty Soldiers and Iraq Veterans against the war. This march was an act of rebirthing civic duty and responsibility to defend our Constitution and strengthen our resolve to stop the damage this unjust, illegal, and immoral war is doing to our families, communities, the world and soldiers.

At the REPORT OUT, walkers and organizers from the Western leg of the walk, which included participants from Buffalo, Rochester and all points north and west of Syracuse, will share their experiences and impressions. They will highlight what the walk meant to them and other walkers around NYS, as well as the responses from the members of the communities that they visited. Photos and short videos recorded by the accompanying Indymedia camera crews will illustrate their stories.
